

RECOMMENDED USES: Finish Line®'s EZ-Willow™ Liniment is a blend of essential oils and botanicals in a cooling gel base. Use for any minor soreness, lameness or swelling. May be used over any muscles including the back and shoulders. May also be used on legs, over joints, tendons or ligaments. May be applied to the coronary bands. May be painted on feet and soles prior to training or racing. For daily use on feet, we recommend EZ-Willow™ Poultice.

DIRECTIONS:

Clean affected area (legs, hooves, shoulders, back) thoroughly with saddle soap or other non-medicated cleanser before use. May be used before and/or after exercise. Rub down affected area with EZ-Willow™ Liniment. Leave uncovered, or cover with a wrap.
