DETOX | Bentonite Clay for Internal & External Health

What Makes It Great

Pelotherapy is the use of natural clay for therapeutic purposes. Bentonite clay has been used for centuries for a range of healing purposes, and countless animal species instinctively ingest the clay or use it externally. Detox ultra-pure bentonite clay is a powerful detoxifying agent for stimulation, transformation and transmission of energy that assists in cellular revitalization. Mined from a pristine source, detox is a clay of unparalleled purity.

How to Use It

For Internal Use:
• May be given daily in your pet's food or water.
• May be given orally with a dropper any time, or when vomiting, diarrhea or other illness occurs

Body Weight	<20 lbs	20-50 lbs	50-90 lbs	>90 lbs
Amount	1/2 tsp	1 tsp	1 tbsp	1-2 tbsp

For External Use:
Apply to pet's skin with hands, cotton ball, or clean towel. Allow clay to fully dry. Leave on or rinse off once dry. If a poultice is required to relieve localized soreness, inflammation or infection, apply the clay to the area and wrap it carefully with damp gauze or cloth. Repeat every few hours or until the desired outcome has been achieved. Add 1/4 cup of DETOX bentonite clay to a bath for general detoxification. (If your pet licks the clay off, don't worry; it's non-toxic and totally safe to ingest.)

Ingredients: All Natural Calcium Bentonite Clay and Purified Water.
